DENTISTRY.

DR T. B. CARR has returned from the North with a largely increased stock of Teeth, Instruments, &c. Having consulted many eminent Dentists, he has perfect confidence in the superiority of Allen's Patent mode of inserting teeth with artificial gums. Full sets inserted immediately after the extraction of the teeth, and remodelled after the gums have healed without additional charge. They can be worn without pain, and removed from the mouth by the wearer, and are cleaner and stronger than teeth inserted in any other way, and are warranted to give perfect satisfaction. All other operations performed in the most approved manner. Reference to individuals in this place now wearing teeth with the patent improvement.

Let the Afflicted Read And Ponder! More than 500 persons in the City of Richmond, Va., alone testify to the remarkable cures performed by CARTER'S SPANISH MIXTURE.

ME great Spring Medicine and Purifier of the Blood i now used by hundreds of grateful patients, who testify daily to the remarkable cures performed by the greatest of all medicines, Carter's Spanish Mixture. Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Scrofula, Eruptions on the Skin, Liver Disease, Fevers, Ulcers, Old Sores, Affections of the Kidneys, Diseases of the Throat, Female Complaints, Pains and Aching of the Bones and Joints, are speedily put to flight by using this great and inestimable remedy.

For all diseases of the Blood, nothing has yet been found to compare with it. It cleanses the system of all impurities, acts gently and efficiently on the Liver and Kidneys, strengthens the Digestion, gives tone to the Stomach, makes the Skin clear and healthy, and restores the Constitution enfeebled by disease or broken down by the excesses of youth to its pristine vigor and strength. For the Ladies, it is incomparably better than all the cos-He was brought from Richmond, Va., and it is probable metics ever used. BY A HUNGARIAN EXILE. "I am coming, I am coming,

"Arm'd for conquest, bent on war.
"Tremble, Mosleme, I am coming," Saith the haughty Russian Czar.

Turkish War-Song.

From the Richmond Enquirer.

"Coming" saith the Shah of Persia, (Eager for ungodly gain)
"If the Sons of Omar perish,
"I may reign in Caldar's plains."

"We are coming," saith the Oossack. "Valiant warriors in my train : " Lo! we come on fleetest coursers, " Sweeping valley, hill, and plain."

Patriot Moslems, firmly stand, Banners streaming, sabres gleaming Lo! your friends are nigh at hand "I am coming," saith Napoleon,
"Thousands to my standard flock;

Though surrounded, not confounded,

"I am coming, I am coming, "Sons of Omar, bide the shock." "I am coming, I am coming, Arm'd for battle, train'd to war, Courage, Moslems, I am coming,"

Saith the gallant Britian Tar. Soon the storm of war, resounding, Towns shall sweep with havoe wild, In its progress all confounding, • Maid and matron, man, and child.

Strike for country, faithful Moslems, Strike for glory gain'd before: Trust in Allah; He may guard you Now, as in the days of yore.

HAVING A CRACK AT 'EM:

STORMING AN ARKANSAS COURT HOUSE. Wall, here goes to have a crack at you, ole bullet-BY "FALCONBRIDGE." The State of Arkansas, is not exactly what it used to was; civilization, schoolmasters, colporteurs, and common sense, have quite changed the general aspect of affairs, political, legal, agricultural and domestic. And hence, the never ending Arkansaw stories, of the slightly killed and a good deal scared, an ounce ball "ancient regime," become more vivid, thrilling or having perforated the collar of his coat.-Forest ludicrous contrasted with the present order of things Garland. in that part of Uncle Sam's farm.

Sometime the Judge and his followers drove out the M'Crackenites, sometimes the M'Crackenites drove out the Judge and court. The fight not only spread all over the neighborhood, but lasted with unabated fury for two entire days and nights. They fought and fit, fit and fought, up trees, on top the court house, inside, outside and all around the settlement. On the morning of the third day, the golden sun arose around as a shield, and bright as the winsome eye of happy maidenhood; the war was ended, the victors were there weary and worn, and the Judge and his attaches held the court in triumph! Where was the M'Crackenites? Echoe answered-no whar! A horseman is seen, a lonely solitary horse-man, his steed is covered with foam, the rider with a blue blanket and dust! He had ridden far and fast; dashed up to the court house; he squats down upon his saddld to get a full view of the court, through the low window he looks astonished, mortified, he speaks : "Eternal yearthquakes and pizened bald face !-Ride thirty miles last night, all-the way from Rattle snake Fork, of Possum Creek, to have a hand in this yer fight, and it's all over afore I get a sight on't!-
